Stop-

Continue- having good weather, the vigil went well, the ceremonies went well as well, have the ordeals come help in the kitchen, radios for communication

Larry Neibuer- will ryeles will be the new Associate Membership Adviser

Ben's Minute- We got a lot done tonight. I'm glad we changed what we did. I. Glad to see that more then one person was nominated for the positions next year and I hope everyone goes to conclave.

Jeff Aster (Adviser)- If no one has heard, Nationals want to change the Brotherhood ceremony. We have 51 people going with 24 positions still available. Make sure that you get the point across that The fall weekend is at RESICA instead of Hart. The Ranjo memorial Clock-tower is beginning construction and putting benches around the dinning hall and make sure during summer camps to see the OA ceremonies. Provisional ordeal and brotherhood could be taken at summercamp. Chapter Adviser can use those $50 that Gregg Slocum mentioned.
